Demonstration of proposed features

User Authentication:

login/sign-up functionality for employees and administrators. Travel Request Submission: Employees can submit travel requests with details like destination, purpose, dates, and estimated costs. Approval Workflow: Requests routed to designated approvers or managers for review and approval/rejection.

Notifications:

Automated emails or notifications to users on request status updates.

Dashboard & Reporting:

Dashboards for admins to track requests, generate reports, and manage approvals.

Expense Tracking:

Integration to track expenses incurred during travel against approved budgets.

Policy Integration:

Guidelines and policies regarding travel expenses and approvals integrated into the system. You can start by choosing a tech stack (e.g., web-based using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and a backend like Node.